

What is MAHSE?

MAHSE is a partnership between the University of Manchester (UoM), Manchester Metropolitan University (MMU) and the University of Salford (UoS), as well as leading Healthcare Scientists from partner NHS Trusts.

The purpose of MAHSE is to:

- Co-ordinate development of healthcare science programmes
- Support trainees and their supervisors on Manchester programmes
- Co-ordinate development of CPD opportunities for Healthcare Scientists
- Facilitate effective communication amongst key stakeholders in order to share good practice and stimulate innovation

Programme Outline

The MSc Clinical Science (Clinical Pharmaceutical Science) programme is a 3-year part time Masters that provides all of the academic content required for the Clinical Pharmaceutical Science Scientist Training Programme (STP). The degree is awarded by the University of Manchester although some modules are taught by King's College London and the University of Salford.

Block release

Each module is structured into blocks of teaching so that it can be taught alongside the professional workplace training.

Timetable

The table opposite shows the content and timetable for the Clinical Pharmaceutical Science programme. Year 1 contains generic and introductory content and teaching is spread over two days in September 2017 and two weeks in October 2017, one week teaching blocks in December 2017, March 2018 and May 2018. Years 2 and 3 contain more specialist, pathway specific modules.

Support

The programme is managed by Ruth Barnes, (Programme Director) and Dr Bev Ellis (Clinical Lead). You will be allocated a personal advisor who provides pastoral care and mentoring.

Travel and Transport

Teaching will take place at; Chancellors Conference centre, Manchester, main campus of UoM and King's College, London. All are close to major road, rail and air links.

Accommodation

University accommodation is scarce during the first semester so you will probably require private accommodation during your first year. Details about suitable accommodation options are available on the MAHSE portal. Access to the MAHSE portal will be given to all new trainees.
